Photographed on a morning walk June 2016

Come and join in a weekend of sewing and relaxing in the company of friends old and new with the same interests. It's a great opportunity to refine your sewing skills, try something new, fine-tune pattern fitting, finish off projects or grab a bargain from the trading table. Bribie Island is connected to the mainland by bridge, only 75 minutes from Brisbane and the venue is just inland from the beach within walking distance to shops and cafés.

The facility is all on ground level (no steps) with easy access for unloading equipment. Facilities include swimming pool and outdoor entertaining areas. Accommodation is basic 8 bed dormitories - BYO bedding. Catering is provided by CWA ladies who prepare full cooked breakfast, home cooked goodies for morning and afternoon tea, lunch, dinner and dessert with tea/coffee always available.
