

STYLEMAKER SERIES

Fabric to Fashion

1 DAY ONLY
Limited seats

This year, Stylemaker Series Seminars and the Australian Sewing Guild (ASG) are proudly partnering with experts from the fashion design department of Holmesglen Institute to bring:

Fabric 2 Fashion

Learn from industry experts about fibre, fabric, design and garment sewing in one fabulous, fun-packed day

Fabric Forensics: Choosing the right fabric means that it's 'fit for purpose' and aesthetically pleasing. Understand the aesthetic, function and comfort properties of fabric to help you better match fashion fabric with pattern design

Fabric Futures—Green is the new black: The textile and apparel sector faces unique social and environmental challenges. How are science, technology and people power influencing ethically sourced fabrics?

The Australian indie journey: from pattern concept to production

Hands-on workshops: no waste cutting, sewing tips & tricks, pattern manipulation

Lucky door prizes, pattern exchange and more!

Saturday 18th November, 2017

9.30 am — 4.30 pm

Holmesglen Institute, City Campus

332 St. Kilda Rd, Southbank

Book your Ticket

$35 ASG members, $45 non ASG members

Includes catered lunch, morning and afternoon teas

Only 60 tickets available—book early

Trybooking Fabric to Fashion

Follow us

@stylemakerseries

Stylemaker Series

For enquiries : stylemakerseries@gmail.com