Sharing and Furthering the Art of Sewing

ASG 2017 Shoalwater Retreat

*St John of God Retreat Centre
47 Gloucester Crescent, Shoalwater Bay*

Monday 30 October to Thursday 2 November 2017

Two Day Sewing School

Have you ever wanted to make a certain garment, but were unsure how to construct it to look professional? Maybe you want help with putting on a collar, or getting the fit right, putting in an invisible zip, sewing a slippery fabric, advice on how to put sleeves in correctly, or anything else you would like to upskill on. Our very own, very talented CAROL GILES, who owns Rich Rags Sewing School, will be on hand to help while you sew WHATEVER you choose on Tuesday and Wednesday. Some of you have already attended Rich Rags Sewing School. Now you can enjoy professional advice for two whole days at Shoalwater. Bring along your project and go home with an amazing finished garment!

Accommodation is warm and comfortable, single rooms with en suite facilities. Non-members may express their interest but preference will first be given to members of the Australian Sewing Guild.

Cost for the Retreat is $500 ($550 for non-members) This includes full accommodation, all yummy meals and tuition.

Carol Giles

I have been sewing ever since I can remember. I went to the Cape Town School of Fashion Design where I trained in design and pattern making using industry methods. We also covered tailoring (traditional industry methods). I have also attended classes with Kenneth King, Sandra Betzina, David Coffin and Kathryn Brenne. I recently attended Susan Kahlje's French style jacket in Melbourne. I worked industry both in Cape Town and Perth and between moving countries (long story) started teaching sewing.

I have for the past 25+ years run a small sewing school called Rich Rags and have recently signed up to Instagram under the name Carol Giles(@carols_richrags)

I am happy to help with pattern manipulation, fitting, construction and copying a much loved garment.
