SHARING AND FURTHERING THE ART OF SEWING

Perth Region Shoalwater Retreat 2019

*StJohn of God Retreat Centre
47 Gloucester Crescent, Shoalwater Bay*

Sunday 27 October to Wednesday 30 October

Three totally indulgent days to get away from it and sew in the tranquil surroundings of St John of God Retreat Centre. Guidance will be on hand with expert tutor Ingrid Zurzolo, who will help you with fitting, techniques and styling. You may make whatever you wish and be a beginner at sewing and dressmaking or more experienced.

Tutor profile: Ingrid Zurzola

Ingrid Zurzolo is currently a fashion and textiles lecturer at North Metropolitan TAFE, specialising in pattern making, sewing and design. She still has her label Designs from the Attic that specialises in bespoke garments and alterations.

Ingrid is very passionate about helping others develop their creative talents, in particular with garment construction and textiles. "When people wear and enjoy something they have made, the joy in their eyes is priceless!"

From WA Ballet wardrobe machinist and cutter, couture house seamstress, made to measure designer, pattern maker, machinist and teacher of sewing and patternmaking for over 15 years. Needless to say, Ingrid has a passion for garment construction and is looking forward to putting her experience to use.

Ingrid will be available to all participants in their creative sewing endeavours. Throughout the two days Ingrid is happy to demonstrate lots of 'handy-to-know' techniques that you may have struggled with or always wanted to know. Some of these may include sewing zippers, setting in sleeves, drafting a sleeve to fit the garment, using bias binding for a facing, fitting techniques and basic pattern adjustments for all figure types.

If you have any special technical requests you would like to see Ingrid demonstrate, please send a message to Maggie or Ingrid.
