Speakers

Join our presenters who will talk about some of the latest trends in sewing and their creative journeys.

Lorraine Jenkins

Sometimes there's a sewing tool or gadget that does the job easy. Lorraine is going to talk about the best, what you really, really need, what would be useful but isn't essential, and what you can do without.

Lorraine started sewing and creating with fabric from a young age and continues to be passionate about sewing and dressmaking, still making all her clothes.

She worked in the sewing machine industry for many years where she was fortunate to work with cutting edge technology, innovative sewing machines and accessories.

Lorraine is now freelance teaching, continuing to share her knowledge and enthusiasm for sewing in all forms.

Michelle Lewis is a skilled bra maker and inspiring tutor, who will explain how your bra should fit. Support and beauty in one garment. What more could you ask for?
