

NSW ASG Industry Day

Saturday 23 March 2024

Join us for the Autumn 2024 NSW Industry Day on Saturday, 23 March 2024 at Pennant Hills Hotel, Pennant Hills. The day features fascinating speakers and is a unique chance for like-minded sewers to get together, learn something new, pick up some bargains and connect with friends old and new.

Tickets include speakers, coffee, and tea (all day), morning tea and lunch. Book now by clicking the link <https://www.trybooking.com/COMWH> or copying and pasting it into your browser.

Speakers

Join our presenters as they share a diverse knowledge and expertise.

Rita Showell

Rita operated a fabric, dressmaking, and teaching business in Armidale city for 36 years. 5 years ago, she built a studio at home to continue a scaled down version of the business now known as Studio 808. She has studied and taught with Claire Schaefer and loves learning new and better techniques.

Rita will share these techniques with you so you can sew successful garments for yourself. Starting with essential measurements and how to choose the right size pattern and style, followed by the value of a toile.

Annie Robinson

A graduate with an Advanced Diploma in Applied Fashion Design and Technology, Annie spent three years in the industry before rediscovering her rural roots. Embarking on her entrepreneurial journey, she initiated with a custom dressmaking business and later expanded into a handmade fashion label.

In 2022, she founded 'Stitched for Good'. Her pattern collection encompasses timeless designs easily adaptable to suit individual styles and shapes. Join Annie in discovering where creativity meets craftsmanship.

Glynis Jones

Glynis, a curator at the Powerhouse Museum, will take us into the development of the Powerhouse fashion and textile collections as well as some of the exhibitions she and her colleague, Alysha Buss, have been involved in curating.
